

Wellington city at night

WELLINGTON

Nestled between a sparkling harbour and rolling green hills, Wellington offers a chic city experience in a stunning natural setting.

An incredibly compact city! The best way to discover Wellington's magic is on foot. This vibrant city is home to more than 300 cafes, bars and restaurants and it rivals the world's top culinary destinations for flavour and variety.

Nature experiences are a big part of what Wellington has got to offer. The excitement of the city is only a few minutes from a peaceful walk through native bush or along a golden sand beach.

If you are interested in learning about New Zealand's history and culture, then Wellington is also the place for you. As the capital, it offers a range of experiences that give an insight into the identity of this amazing country.

The city is home to Te Papa Tongarewa, the national museum, which is a world-leader in interactive museum experiences. Te Papa provides a unique insight into the story of New Zealand and all who live here. The country's historic Parliament Buildings reside in Wellington, and also form a starting point for exploring the country's nationhood.
