WHY GET MARRIED IN THE COOK ISLANDS

STRESS FREE Your wedding coordinator will arrange everything with great flexibility and is able to tailor make arrangements to match a couple's dreams.

BEAUTIFUL LOCATIONS Choose from sandbanks to tropical rainforest, barefoot to ballroom, chapels to traditional churches.

FANTASTIC PICTURES With heavenly sunsets and stunningly beautiful scenery, the Cooks provides an amazing backdrop for wedding photos.

WEATHER The Cooks enjoys a pleasant tropical climate with the best weather during the months of May to September.

UNIQUE No wedding anywhere else will have Polynesian or costumed attendants and decorated traditional rafts to make the occasion unique.

ECONOMICAL To have your wedding and your honeymoon in one place has a much smaller impact on your wallet.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

When planning your wedding keep in mind that the Marriage Registry offices are only open Monday to Friday and are closed for all public holidays. You must have been in the Cook Island 3 full days after visiting the Registry office. Most wedding packages include transfer to/from the Registry offices but you will require the following documentation:

- Original Birth certificate for both the Bride and Groom
- Divorce Papers (If a divorce was granted in the last 5 years)
- Death certificate if a spouse from a previous marriage is deceased.
