WHAT TO DO IN HUAHINE :

FARE VILLAGE

The largest town in Huahine is concentrated within only a few blocks. The village comes alive each day with the arrival of the ferry and when the fishing boats display their daily catch.

HISTORICAL SITES

The largest concentration of pre-European marae (ancient temples) are located in Huahine.

The quiet roads and waters around Huahine are perfect for leisurely exploration. By car or bus tour, the scenic roads wind through verdant forests and up to breathtaking vistas.

Te Tiare Beach Resort ★★★★★

Tucked away in a small bay on the island of Huahine, you will find the Te Tiare Beach, accessible only by boat from the main village of Fare. The hotel is situated on the west coast of the Large Island of Huahine. All bungalows are very spacious, among the largest in Polynesia.
