Amalfi Coast Stay

The charming small village of Minori, is one of the pearls of the Amalfi Coast. The residents consider this region as a real heaven on Earth. This attractive village is among others, an example of a small rural hamlet plunged in the peace and calm, away from the noise and chaos of modern life, and characterised by colours and scent of the lemon groves of the Amalfi coast. St. Gennaro's Church is situated in the centre of the village. Its origin dates back from the 10th century and is the unique example of Romanesque architecture in the whole coast. Enjoy one, two or three weeks of pure peace and relaxation at Villa Romana with daily breakfast and dinner.
