ITNERARY

DAY 1 | ARRIVAL TUNIS

Upon your arrival at the Airport, you will be assisted by your professional guide and driver and transferred directly to the hotel of stay in Tunis, the capital of the country and its greatest metropolitan area.

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel El Mouradi Gammarth or similar.

DAY 2 | SIDI BOUSAID – CARTHAGE - MEDINA

This day starts with the transfer to the picturesque Sidi Bou said. The village is known for its whitewalls and blue windows and doors, and a dazzling view on the Mediterranean Sea, at an altitude of over 100 meters high. Your next stop is at the site of Carthage, located on a magnificent coastline. Although the ancient city was destroyed by the Romans, it still nowadays features excavations of homes, baths and sewage systems. The other significant site in the area is the Amphitheatre of Carthage, built towards the 1st century and later rebuilt by the Romans. The theatre today hosts some 30000 visitors at the yearly International Music Festival of Carthage. After lunch, you will head towards downtown Tunis to visit the National Museum of Bardo, renowned for its rich collection of Mosaics and location on an old biblical castle in the middle of the old city of Tunis. The day is concluded with a visit and free time in the ancient Medina of Tunis

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel Golden Tulip Taj Sultan, Hammamet (or similar)

DAY 3 | DOUGGA - KAIROUAN

The third day of this roundtrip continues to yet another one of Tunisia's rich archaeological sites, the site of Dougga, qualified by UNESCO as a world heritage for containing of the best preserved Roman sites in the area. The site contains a heritage of a variety of civilizations amongst which the Roman, the Punic and the Byzantine. Its most significant monuments are the Capitol and the Theatre. After a local lunch, you will be transferred to the Capital of Islam in Tunisia, Kairouan.

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel Kasbah Kairouan (or similar).

DAY 4 | KAIROUAN - TOZEUR

As the day starts, your guide will walk you through the old Medina of Kairouan to the Great Mosque of Kairouan, located in the middle of the Medina and built by the Arab general Uqba Ibn Nafi in 670 AD. The site attracts thousands of local and international visitors for its magnificent architectural and spiritual value. The next visit is to the Aghlabid water site, where two large basins and a few cisterns have survived the centuries after they have served during decades of scarce drinking water resources. After lunch, the tour heads towards the south, via Gafsa, to arrive at Tozeur, the city of Palm trees.

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel Ras El Ain Tozeur (or similar)

DAY 5 | TOZEUR- CHEBIKA – CANYONS OF TAMERZA – TOZEUR

After breakfast, the roundtrip offers an optional 4X4 ride to discover the oasis (not included in the price), where you will drive through the desert and the occasional dry salt lakes to arrive at the mountain oasis of Chebika and the Canyons of Tamerza. After lunch, you will also have the option for another 4X4 ride to visit the site of the Star Wars movie located in the middle of the Sahara Desert, only a couple of minutes from Tozeur (not included in the price).

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel Ras El Ain Tozeur (or similar)

DAY 6 | TOZEUR- CHOTT DJERID – DOUZ

After breakfast and on the way out of Tozeur, you will visit the downtown of the small city and spot the different architectural style on the facades of the houses. Afterward, you will ride through the biggest Salt Lake in the country, Chott El Jerid, with an outstanding never ending view of white and sometimes pink mirages. At your arrival to Douz, and after lunch, free time is offered for an optional discovery of the Tunisian Sahara on the back of a Camel (not included).

- Dinner and overnight at Sun Palm Douz (or similar)

DAY 7 | DOUZ - MATMATA – SOUSSE

The first stop of this day is at the old Village of Matmata. The area contains one of the best preserved, still habituated, troglodytes' houses, carved by Tunisian Berbers in the middle of the ground. A second site of the Star Wars movie is also open for visitors in Matmata. The next stop is at the village of El Jem, home of the Roman amphitheatre of El Jem, the second largest Roman Amphitheatre, built around 18 centuries ago, and still today exceptionally well preserved. The site was mainly used for spectator events, namely gladiator battles. After a local lunch in El Jem, you will continue to Sousse, your place of stay for your last night in the country.

- Dinner and overnight at Hotel El Mouradi Palace Sousse (or similar).

DAY 8 | SOUSSE –DEPARTURE

After breakfast, and depending on your flight time, your guide will take you to the leisure harbor of Port El Kantaoui, where you will have another opportunity to purchase some souvenirs or simply enjoy the scene while sipping some Tunisian coffee or fresh juice. Then you will be transferred to the airport and assisted for departure.

We strongly suggest some extra nights at the beach in Port El Kantaoui or Hammamet.
