

FIJI SUNSHINE COAST, LAUTOKA
FIRST LANDING RESORT 3 *
LONG STAY OF 14 NIGHTS

Lautoka is the second largest city of Fiji. It is in the west of the island of Viti Levu, 24 kilometers north of Nadi, and is the second port of entry in Fiji, after Suva. Lying in the heart of Fiji's sugar cane growing region, it is known as the Sugar City.

The city is only a 20minute ride from Nadi. There are a handful of restaurants and hotels. It is also the departure point for many tours and cruises to the off-shore islands.

Location

First Landing Beach Resort is situated on the only white sand beach in the Nadi area and set amongst landscaped tropical gardens. According to local legend, the first Fijians arrived around 1500 BC, landing on the beach at First Landing Resort. The small, owner-operated resort featuring a popular beachside restaurant, provides personal attention to all guests and genuine Fijian hospitality. The nearby islands are easily accessible from Vuda Marina which is located Beachfront Spa Bures, offering spectacular views across to the nearby islands and the Pacific Ocean. The beach faces due west, giving breathtaking sunsets across to the islands. This beachfront resort is perfect for families and couples, making First Landing Resort ideal for your next Fiji holiday
