Today you have another opportunity to stop and visit the small towns on the route back into New Brunswick. If you didn't have the chance on your journey east, perhaps now stop for lunch in the small town of Truro, or watch gravity be defied at the Magnetic Hill in Moncton where your car will appear to roll uphill. Stay a little longer and visit the adjacent Magnetic Hill Zoo with creatures both unique to Canada and from around the world. Continue on to Shediac where you might wish to treat yourself to a lobster dinner at one of the local restaurants.

DAY 13 PERCE

Once the largest fishing port in the Gaspé Peninsula, Perce is now the gem of the entire Gaspé region as a resort and tourist town and renowned for the extraordinary beauty of its surroundings. The town has a delightful selection of restaurants and cafes, some of the best in the region as well as a summer theatre program and a boardwalk that stretches along the south beach. Furthermore, the towns and villages such as Beaufort, Baie-St-Paul and Saint-Simeon that have grown up along the banks of the river reflect a comparatively recent 300-year history of both French and English empires, leaving their mark on the architecture and the local cultures.
